

NO MATTER HOW MANY BLOWS
LIFE DEALS YOU, YOU CAN STILL RELY ON YOUR HARD
WORK AND DETERMINATION
TO MAKE YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

Lessons Learned
from Disney

Objectives

- Discuss Britain's response to the Boston Tea Party.
- Analyze and discuss a portion of Patrick Henry's speech.

Task List

1. CHECK-IN and copy today's homework.
2. FOCUS: Read the quote in the box

“The destruction of the tea is so bold, so daring, so firm, so intrepid, and inflexible, it must have...important consequences.”

and answer the following questions:

- What are the consequences John Adams is talking about?
- If the tea tax was so small, why did the colonists react the way they did?

Homework

- Road to Revolution Test - Tues, Oct 15

“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

First Continental Congress

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

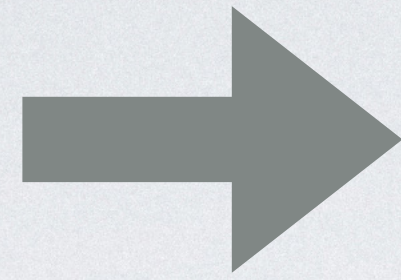

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

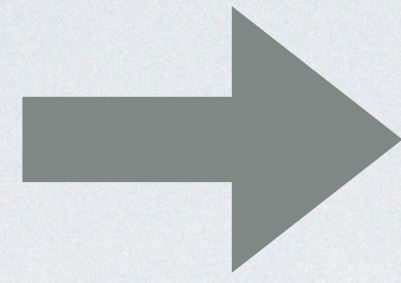

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

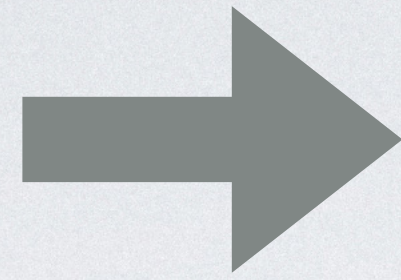

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

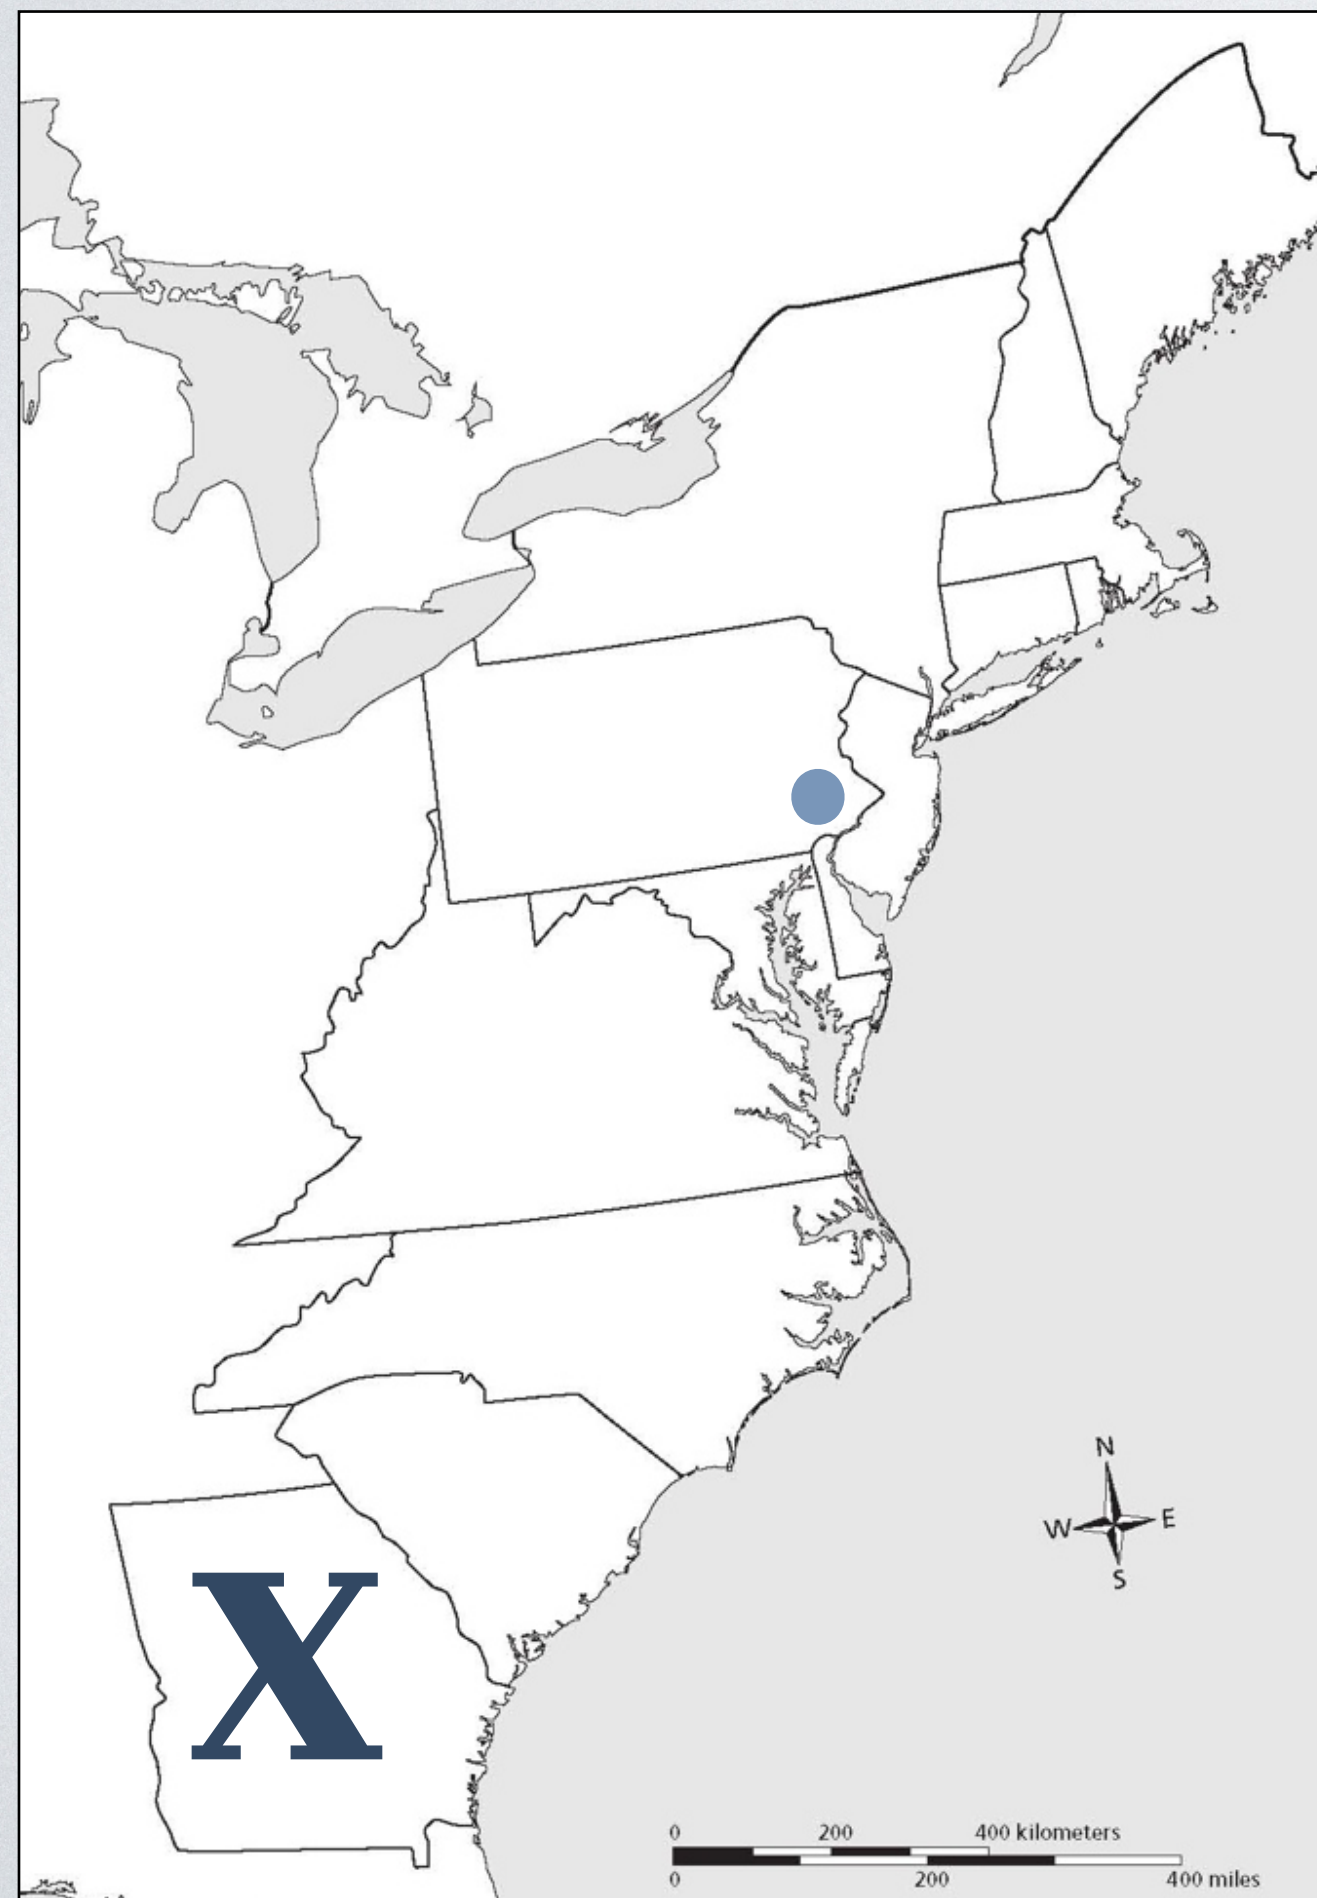

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

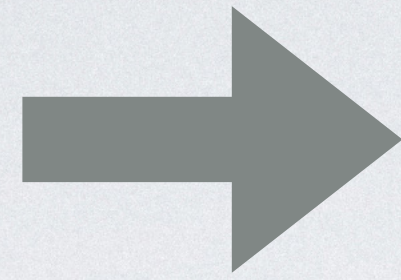

Virginia

Massachusetts

Pennsylvania

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

Virginia

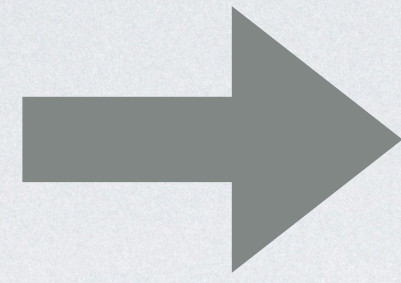

George Washington
Thomas Jefferson
Patrick Henry

Massachusetts

Pennsylvania

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

Virginia

George Washington
Thomas Jefferson
Patrick Henry

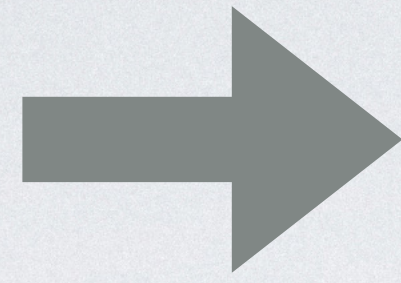

Massachusetts

John Adams
Sam Adams
John Hancock

Pennsylvania

*“the cause of Boston now
is and ever will be
the cause of America”
-George Washington*

First Continental Congress

- Philadelphia, PA - Carpenter House
- 12 Colonies

Virginia

George Washington
Thomas Jefferson
Patrick Henry

Massachusetts

John Adams
Sam Adams
John Hancock

Pennsylvania

Ben Franklin

