Ball Court

OLLAMA

Practiced for three reasons:

1. For sport
2. To replace war
3. To perform religious rituals

Rules for the Reenactment:

- We do not mock each other.
- We do not touch each other with any of the props.
- We move SILENTLY and quickly through the halls to our destination.

If you misbehave, you will be sent to the office and will be suspended from doing any further reenactments. You will write papers while the rest of the class does reenactments.

Court: Narrow flat, 2 inclined sides

Ball: Solid Rubber; 9-lbs.,
Bounced Well

Goals:

- Get the ball into the opposing team's endzone
- Get the ball through the opposing team's circle

Decline of the

MAYA CIVILIZATION

Some theories include:

- Burden on common people
- Warfare
- Famine
- Drought
- Plagues
- Hurricane
