JACKSON HATES THE BANK

- During Jackson's first term...
 - PROBLEM: State banks were giving out too many loans
 - SOLUTION: National bank limited the number of loans state banks could make
 - Goal: prevent inflation
 - Effect on people:
 - Wealthy = better risk = loans!
 - Common people = too risky = no loans!

THE BANK WAR

JACKSON HATES THE BANK because

- 1) Too powerful
- 2) Undemocratic (benefitted the wealthy, not the common people)
- 3) Unconstitutional (not a right of the national government)
